- Financial Wellbeing • Housing & Homelessness
- Mental Health • Parenting Support • Suicide Postvention
- Sexual Abuse Support Services • Youth Services

What is Relationship Counselling?

Counselling is for individuals, couples, families and children concerned about their relationships. Our relationship counselling can help people who:

- Want to enjoy, improve and enhance their relationships
- Are partnered and having difficulties, arguments, sexual differences and affairs
- Have difficulties in working relationships, friendships and extended family
- Need help with loss or grief
- Have had major changes in their lives, such as parenting, separating, re-marriage, step families, redundancy or retirement
- Have experienced family and domestic violence

Do we assist with parenting and child related issues?

We provide information, referrals and counselling for children and families on a variety of issues.

What happens in counselling?

Counselling sessions last for around 50 minutes. We focus on your unique concerns and how you can work to resolve them.

Opening Hours

Offices are open during business hours and after hours at some locations, contact us for more information.

Counsellor Qualifications

All counselling staff have tertiary qualifications and many have post graduate qualifications. All staff are supervised and undertake ongoing training and professional development.

Anglicare WA is approved by the Australian Government Department of Social Services to provide counselling services.

Is there a fee?

Anglicare WA is subsidised by the Commonwealth Government. We charge fees, based on a sliding scale. Cash, eftpos and credit cards are accepted.

Reschedule or Cancellation Notice

We ask for at least 24 hours notice for cancellations or to reschedule an appointment. A fee may be charged for appointments cancelled with less than 24 hours notice.

Immediate or Crisis Support

For assistance in a crisis contact:
Crisis Care 9223 1111

Trained staff can assist with crisis accommodation and support.
